The vessel was making at the time about eight knots. Her speed was not at all checked, a fact which would destroy the presumption that she had struck any sunken obstruction.

JULY 31st -In former years, say from 1850 to 1860, this was observed as the great national holiday of Hawaii nei; but it has wisely been deemed proper to drop its observance altogether. Not a national flag could be found floating from any government flagstaff. But though the government and foreigners have ceased to observe it, the native population, long accustomed to keep it as a day of pleasure, do not so readily forget it, and attired with their bright leis and most fashionable green dresses, could be seen hurrying to their annual feasts, where luaned hog and dog are the dainties reserved for this day in Placer mining is on the decline. Vein or quartz mining is progressing favorably. A general decline is observed in the bullion product. The population actually engaged in mining has greatly diminished in the past few years, and does not no exceed 50,000. Agriculture, manufactures, and mmerce are assuming the preponderance over the mining interest. The area or land suitable for cultivation is much larger than was originally supposed. Important results are anticipated from the completion of the Pacific Railroad. The miscellaneous minerals of the Pacific slope are elaborately described. Copper mining is in a depressed condition; also quicksilver. The report embraces detailed descriptions of the mineral resources of California, Nevada, Utah, Arizona, Montana, Idaho, open and active, there is little or no danger from Washington Territory, and Oregon. Interesting statistics are also given of the history and condition of the mining interesting in Europe, Mexico,

REMARKABLE DISCOVERY IN TENNESSEE .- The Chatanooga Union says that Mr. William Staples, while digging, recently, in a salt lake on his farm, twelve miles northeast of Kingston, Tenn., struck a solid imestone rock, about seven feet below the surface. He found in it a well about eight inches in diameter. filled with very salt water. After the discovery of the well, Mr. Staples prosecuted his investigations, and found to his surprise, a line of salt kettles or rather the remains of salt kettles. The kettles were of stoneware, made of the same material as that used by the Indians for their home ware, such as plates, dishes, &c. The kettles were broken, ont the curvature indicated that they were about three feet in diameter, and were about forty in number. A most striking fact connected with this liscovery, is that these kettles were found at a depth of seven feet below the surface of the ground. Growing above them were trees-poplar and oak -which were evidently two centuries old.

THE GREAT OCEAN RACE .- It will be seen by cent cable despatches that the City of Paris has won the great ocean race, having made the trip from New York to Queenstown in less than seven and a half days-the fastest time on record. LADIES' GAMELING HOUSES IN WASHINGTON .- The Washington Chronicle asserts that there are two ashionable gambling houses, both within half a dozen squares of the Treasury Building, in that city, which are exclusively for the use of ladies. At those places, at nearly all hours of the day, may be found richly dressed ladies, connected with families whose standing is high in the community. earnestly engaged in faro, and staking their money with an abandon that would excite surprise. The sterner sex is rigidly excluded, and the players feel themselves secure from the intrusion of watchful fathers or angry husbands, while they at the same time place firm reliance on the silence of their fair companions. CAMBRIDGE (England). June 16 .- The University of Cambridge to-day conferred the degree of Doctor of Laws upon H. W. Lougfellow. The ceremony took place in public and was witnessed by a large audience, many of whom were ladies. But few of the students attended. On coming forward Longfellow was met with demonstrations of welcome from the assemblage, who greeted him with loud and prolonged cheers. The Vice Chancellor, on conferring the degree, made an address in which he alluded in suitable terms to the poet's life, character and works. He also spoke of the generous reception of Dickens by the American people. After expressing gratification at the appointment of Reverdy Johnson to represent the United States in England, he concluded by expressing the national desire for enduring friendship between the two nations. The Vice Chancellor was applauded. It is announced the ex-Governor Eyre, of Ja-

RELIGIOUS LIBERTY IN ENGLAND-FORCING PIETY INTO A PRISONER .- An extraordinary question received a more extraordinary answer in the House of Commons last night. What is most charming is that it required the united zeal, wisdom and discretion of all the high prison officials working in concert to effect this marvelous conversion. "They went and told" the Director, firstly, that Murphy was unprovided with a faith. The Director minuted the Governor. The Governor applied to his superiors for instruc-tions. The chief merit in the conversion is its cheapness; it could not have cost much more than five shillings from first to last. But we fear that the plan of ordering a man to select his religion is unsound in principle, although it succeeded so well on this occasion. It is impossible to keep every variety of faith on tap; and suppose Murphy had avowed a preference for the doctrines of Buddho, how would it have been possible for him to go to meeting?—London Star, May 19th.
